Character Sheet

CHARACTER CONCEPT: THE SOCIAL GLUE

- Extraverted people-person, has lots of friends and loves collecting people and introducing them to each other; this group of friends are their intimate circle. Doesn't always understand why people they love don't love each other. Whoever they're interacting with at the moment is the most important person in the world to them, but they are easily distracted by the next person to come along.
- The friend you invite first to all your social events, and who is guaranteed to be the one person you know in a room full of strangers.
- Scene 1: The one who invited everyone to live in an apartment together.

Character Name:

Spotlight Scene Number/Character Number:

Initial Background Detail (fill in in first SOLO workshop):

Where Did You Come From?
(Could include any or all of: geographical location, socioeconomic/cultural background, family composition/relationship, any other background detail):

College Major:

Interests/Passions/Hobbies:

Your Greatest Hope:

Your Greatest Fear:

Something everyone in the group knows about you:

Something nobody knows about you:

Details about the group of friends (fill in during first GROUP workshop):

What kind of college did we go to?

How did we meet/how do we know each other?

What do we like to do together?

Where is the apartment we're moving into?

A good detail about the apartment

A bad detail about the apartment

Workshop 1: First Apartment (early 20s)

Life Event:

Character:

Short Relationship Description (SUPPORTIVE):

Character:

Short Relationship Description (CONFLICT):

Workshop 2: Dreams & Plans (late 20s)

Life Event:

How close is your character to the rest of the group at this point?

Character:

Short Relationship Description:

Workshop 3: Complications (late 30s)

Life Event:

How close is your character to the rest of the group at this point?

Character:

Short Relationship Description:

Workshop 4: Doors Closing, Doors Opening (early 50s)

Life Event:

How close is your character to the rest of the group at this point?

Character:

Short Relationship Description:

Workshop 5: Wait, How Did We Get Old? (mid 60s)

Life Event:

How close is your character to the rest of the group at this point?

Character:

Short Relationship Description:

Workshop 6: One Last Move (late 70s)

Life Event:

How close is your character to the rest of the group at this point?

Character:

Short Relationship Description:

Character Sheet

CHARACTER CONCEPT: EVERYONE'S LITTLE SIB

- Maybe they're literally younger than everyone else, or maybe they just bring out everyone's protective and mentoring instincts (e.g., because they are less mature, (sub)cultural newcomer, vulnerable in some way). Curious, enthusiastic about learning new things, and uninhibited about asking questions, including the ones everyone else is too tactful or too scared to ask. Wants to belong to this group and is unsure of whether they do.
- The friend you keep a protective eye on and introduce to your favorite groups/activities/media.
- Scene 1: Volunteered to take the least desirable bedroom in the new shared apartment.

Character Name:

Spotlight Scene Number/Character Number:

Initial Background Detail (fill in in first SOLO workshop):

Where Did You Come From?
(Could include any or all of: geographical location, socioeconomic/cultural background, family composition/relationship, any other background detail):

College Major:

Interests/Passions/Hobbies:

Your Greatest Hope:

Your Greatest Fear:

Something everyone in the group knows about you:

Something nobody knows about you:

Details about the group of friends (fill in during first GROUP workshop):

What kind of college did we go to?

How did we meet/how do we know each other?

What do we like to do together?

Where is the apartment we're moving into?

A good detail about the apartment

A bad detail about the apartment

Workshop 1: First Apartment (early 20s)

Life Event:

Character:

Short Relationship Description (SUPPORTIVE):

Character:

Short Relationship Description (CONFLICT):

Workshop 2: Dreams & Plans (late 20s)

Life Event:

Character:

Short Relationship Description:

Workshop 3: Complications (late 30s)

Life Event:

Character:

Short Relationship Description:

Workshop 4: Doors Closing, Doors Opening (early 50s)

Life Event:

Character:

Short Relationship Description:

Workshop 5: Wait, How Did We Get Old? (mid 60s)

Life Event:

Character:

Short Relationship Description:

Workshop 6: One Last Move (late 70s)

Life Event:

Character:

Short Relationship Description:

Character Sheet

CHARACTER CONCEPT: THE ORGANIZER

- The 'responsible adult' in any group, even if they're not actually older than anyone else. Takes responsibility for planning and organizing whatever's going on and does it well. Gets stressed out when there is no plan or their friends are doing risky things. Usually too level-headed and reasonable to get caught up in interpersonal drama. Often perceived as a serious person who maybe ought to lighten up sometimes.
- The friend you rely on to get things done.
- Scene 1: The one who organized the logistics of finding an apartment and moving everyone into the new place. Brought the packing materials.

Character Name:

Spotlight Scene Number/Character Number:

Initial Background Detail (fill in in first SOLO workshop):

Where Did You Come From?
(Could include any or all of: geographical location, socioeconomic/cultural background, family composition/relationship, any other background detail):

College Major:

Interests/Passions/Hobbies:

Your Greatest Hope:

Your Greatest Fear:

Something everyone in the group knows about you:

Something nobody knows about you:

Details about the group of friends (fill in during first GROUP workshop):

What kind of college did we go to?

How did we meet/how do we know each other?

What do we like to do together?

Where is the apartment we're moving into?

A good detail about the apartment

A bad detail about the apartment

Workshop 1: First Apartment (early 20s)

Life Event:

Character:

Short Relationship Description (SUPPORTIVE):

Character:

Short Relationship Description (CONFLICT):

Workshop 2: Dreams & Plans (late 20s)

Life Event:

Character:

Short Relationship Description:

Workshop 3: Complications (late 30s)

Life Event:

Character:

Short Relationship Description:

Workshop 4: Doors Closing, Doors Opening (early 50s)

Life Event:

Character:

Short Relationship Description:

Workshop 5: Wait, How Did We Get Old? (mid 60s)

Life Event:

Character:

Short Relationship Description:

Workshop 6: One Last Move (late 70s)

Life Event:

Character:

Short Relationship Description:

Character Sheet

CHARACTER CONCEPT: THE PHILOSOPHER

- Intellectual, with a deep/broad knowledge about topics that interest them. Always up for a debate, likes to push people to express and justify their opinions, to question their assumptions, and to live up to their own principles. Is not usually trying to start a fight and is surprised when they end up in one or people get angry/upset with them. Frustrated by hypocrisy. Respects people whose opinions are different from theirs, as long as they can make a consistent argument for them.
- The friend you go to for help wrestling with an ethical dilemma, or for help confronting jerks.
- Scene 1: Has been initiating discussions about household rules & expectations, and how people want to set up the space.

Character Name:

Spotlight Scene Number/Character Number:

Initial Background Detail (fill in in first SOLO workshop):

Where Did You Come From?
(Could include any or all of: geographical location, socioeconomic/cultural background, family composition/relationship, any other background detail):

College Major:

Interests/Passions/Hobbies:

Your Greatest Hope:

Your Greatest Fear:

Something everyone in the group knows about you:

Something nobody knows about you:

Details about the group of friends (fill in during first GROUP workshop):

What kind of college did we go to?

How did we meet/how do we know each other?

What do we like to do together?

Where is the apartment we're moving into?

A good detail about the apartment

A bad detail about the apartment

Workshop 1: First Apartment (early 20s)

Life Event:

Character:

Short Relationship Description (SUPPORTIVE):

Character:

Short Relationship Description (CONFLICT):

Workshop 2: Dreams & Plans (late 20s)

Life Event:

Character:

Short Relationship Description:

Workshop 3: Complications (late 30s)

Life Event:

Character:

Short Relationship Description:

Workshop 4: Doors Closing, Doors Opening (early 50s)

Life Event:

Character:

Short Relationship Description:

Workshop 5: Wait, How Did We Get Old? (mid 60s)

Life Event:

Character:

Short Relationship Description:

Workshop 6: One Last Move (late 70s)

Life Event:

Character:

Short Relationship Description:

Character Sheet

CHARACTER CONCEPT: THE HEDGEHOG

- The prickly introvert who turns out to be cool once you get to know them. Awkward with strangers, large groups, and most people, comfortable and happy among close friends who understand and appreciate them. Keen observer who and puts in the effort to know/understand their friends deeply. Non-judgmental. Intensely loyal to their friends.
- The friend you call at 3 in the morning when you're in trouble.
- Scene 1: Has been quietly scrounging for stuff the shared apartment needs that no one in the group already owns.

Character Name:

Spotlight Scene Number/Character Number:

Initial Background Detail (fill in in first SOLO workshop):

Where Did You Come From?
(Could include any or all of: geographical location, socioeconomic/cultural background, family composition/relationship, any other background detail):

College Major:

Interests/Passions/Hobbies:

Your Greatest Hope:

Your Greatest Fear:

Something everyone in the group knows about you:

Something nobody knows about you:

Details about the group of friends (fill in during first GROUP workshop):

What kind of college did we go to?

How did we meet/how do we know each other?

What do we like to do together?

Where is the apartment we're moving into?

A good detail about the apartment

A bad detail about the apartment

Workshop 1: First Apartment (early 20s)

Life Event:

Character:

Short Relationship Description (SUPPORTIVE):

Character:

Short Relationship Description (CONFLICT):

Workshop 2: Dreams & Plans (late 20s)

Life Event:

Character:

Short Relationship Description:

Workshop 3: Complications (late 30s)

Life Event:

Character:

Short Relationship Description:

Workshop 4: Doors Closing, Doors Opening (early 50s)

Life Event:

Character:

Short Relationship Description:

Workshop 5: Wait, How Did We Get Old? (mid 60s)

Life Event:

Character:

Short Relationship Description:

Workshop 6: One Last Move (late 70s)

Life Event:

Character:

Short Relationship Description:

Character Sheet

CHARACTER CONCEPT: THE SUPERSTAR

- The person who is good at everything they do and seems to accomplish twice as much as anyone else in the same amount of time. People admire and envy them; it's hard to actually dislike them because they're also good at courtesy and making friends. Always busy, overcommitted but managing to keep the balls in the air, they have trouble spending enough time with any single person to get close.
- The friend whose shows/games/rallies/awards ceremonies you attend with your mutual friends and take them out to celebrate afterwards.
- Scene 1: The one who already has an actual paying job. Their name is on the lease and/or they're legally acting as financial security for the group so that the landlord will rent to them.

Character Name:

Spotlight Scene Number/Character Number:

Initial Background Detail (fill in in first SOLO workshop):

Where Did You Come From?
(Could include any or all of: geographical location, socioeconomic/cultural background, family composition/relationship, any other background detail):

College Major:

Interests/Passions/Hobbies:

Your Greatest Hope:

Your Greatest Fear:

Something everyone in the group knows about you:

Something nobody knows about you:

Details about the group of friends (fill in during first GROUP workshop):

What kind of college did we go to?

How did we meet/how do we know each other?

What do we like to do together?

Where is the apartment we're moving into?

A good detail about the apartment

A bad detail about the apartment

Workshop 1: First Apartment (early 20s)

Life Event:

Character:

Short Relationship Description (SUPPORTIVE):

Character:

Short Relationship Description (CONFLICT):

Workshop 2: Dreams & Plans (late 20s)

Life Event:

Character:

Short Relationship Description:

Workshop 3: Complications (late 30s)

Life Event:

Character:

Short Relationship Description:

Workshop 4: Doors Closing, Doors Opening (early 50s)

Life Event:

Character:

Short Relationship Description:

Workshop 5: Wait, How Did We Get Old? (mid 60s)

Life Event:

Character:

Short Relationship Description:

Workshop 6: One Last Move (late 70s)

Life Event:

Character:

Short Relationship Description: