12. Is there a topic (that is not covered above) that you want to have included as a line or veil? (Line = this topic should not be mentioned in game. Veil = this topic can be mentioned, but only briefly/without detail.) We will assemble a list of line/veil topics for players to keep in mind as they improvise and fill in gaps in their character backstory. *

13. Is there another player you prefer not to play closely with? (Because everyone is in the same elevator, it is not possible for you to entirely avoid someone.)

14. By default, this game requires players to stand or sit on the floor during play. We can put a limited number of chairs into the game space. Would you like to use a chair during game? If so, do you want an in-game reason for sitting (e.g., character is in a wheelchair)? Is there any other type of accommodation or accessibility arrangement that would be helpful for you?

15. We will not require players to wear masks unless the con requires it, but we will also be supportive of any player who wants to wear a mask. Do you have any concerns about this?

16. Do you want us to provide a printed copy of your sheets on game day? (If you're not sure, check "yes" and we'll bring one in case you need it.) *
